IMPORTANT ACQUISITION FROM UDOR S.p.A. IN HIGH AND ULTRA HIGH PRESSURE PUMP MARKET

UDOR S.p.A., one of the world leading manufacturers of Diaphragm Pumps and Plunger Pumps, becomes majority shareholder of the british company HUGHES PUMPS Ltd.

UDOR believes in the importance of this industrial project as HUGHES represents the ideal completion of its product range that now covers a large series of pumps from 1 to 500 H.P. with pressure from 20 to 2800 bar.

UDOR S.p.A. was founded in 1966, today its pumps are sold to over 90 countries worldwide and has its own distributing branches in USA, China, Brazil and Argentina. This particular acquisition confirms UDOR's vision and ambition to reinforce its leading position in the High Pressure Plunger Pump market.

HUGHES Pumps Ltd. manufactures High and Ultra High Pressure Pumps since 1970 and has a complete range of high technology and quality products. HUGHES pumps will strongly benefit from UDOR's sales organization and presence and both brands will gain power on the market.

Phil Cranford, current Managing Director of HUGHES Pumps Ltd. will continue in his position and will work with the UDOR team to find all potential synergies and obtain new growth for HUGHES products.
